PROCEDURES TO FOLLOW FOR "AFRICANI, CASSATE" on pans.

SFRULLA	1000 g
eggs	1000 g

wheat flour	500 g
-------------	-------

Whip SFRULLA and eggs for 8-10 minutes, then gently incorporate the wheat flour. Bag out on greased and flour-dusted pans or oven paper; give a round or oval shape. Be sure the units are of equal size. Bake at 210-220°C. The baked units will be used to prepare AFRICANI and CASSATE. NOTE: with the dough for AFRICANI, CASSATE it is also possible to prepare SAVOIARDI, TORTIGLIONI GRANELLATI on pans (instead of molds).

AFRICANI

With a sharp knife (it is better to use round or oval cutters) cut the borders of the baked units prepared as described, in order to give them uniform size and shape. Sandwich the units together with jam. Wet with sugar syrups or liqueurs and brush a thin layer of baker's jelly. Dip completely in warm chocolate fondant sugar (fondant sugar with chocolate added). Finishing can be varied dipping in fruit flavoured couvertures (lemon or orange).

CASSATE

Cut the borders of the baked units giving them uniform size and size (use preferably a round cutter, diameter 8-9 cm). Turn over the units, dig out a sort of nest in the bottoms and fill them with whipped buttercream icing (after wetting with sugar syrups or liqueurs). Fill half of the units with regular buttercream icing (light); the other half should be filled with cocoa flavoured buttercream icing (dark). Put a candied cherry just in center of light (or dark) filled units. Sandwich the units with apposite fillings, light and dark. Allow to chill in refrigerator for a few hours, so that the fillings become hard, then cut the units into four equal parts. The cutting is best done by dipping a sharp knife into hot water after each cut. The cherry should result cut into four parts giving great decorating effect to CASSATE.
